

University of Calgary – Residence Services

Consent to Disclose Personal Information to a Designate

Residence Services collects personal information under the authority of the FOIP Act and uses and discloses it only for the purposes of managing the housing program unless required, permitted or authorized by legislation. With your consent, Residence Services will also provide specific information to, or collect your personal information from, a named individual. If you wish to consent to this collection and/or disclosure, please sign this form as indicated below. Please note that your consent here does not give