

EMPLOYEE CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

The University of Calgary places a high level of responsibility and trust in its employees especially those who handle human resources data. As part of your duties, you have access to confidential records and information regarding the University, its employees, consultants and agents. With respect to these records and information, and all other confidential and proprietary University of Calgary information and records, I agree to the following:

1. I