Hello, my name is Kaliopi Gorgichuk and I wanted to take a moment to introduce myself. I am the Coordinator of the Academic Turnaround Program, or ATP for short. I work with your faculty to support you with your application into the program and in meeting the program requirements. If you choose not to engage in ATP, I can help you identify your options.

I recognize that the information you have received from your faculty may be overwhelming or surprising for you. Dealing with academic hardships can be stressful. We know that you can achieve academic success and complete your desired degree. Alongside my collo. 0.0(esi)9 (i)10(n)-4(g)(g)(g)(g)

If you choose to engage in ATP, you will need to comply with the following requirements:

Once you have been accepted into the Academic Turnaround Program, you must modify your course registration to align with the course load specified in your ATP Invitation letter: Your 2024 Academic Review Results and Invitation to Participate in the Academic Turnaround Program (ATP)This will include course limits and/or the registration of specific courses.

Course limits are set in place to support you in a successful turnaround. Registration in excess courses will result in your faculty requiring you to remove yourself from one or more courses; if this occurs after the drop deadline, you will remain liable for tuition and fees for the dropped course(s).

You may not enroll in courses at other institutions

Entrance into the program is conditional on the successful completion of the ATP Application by the deadline indicated in the ATP Invitation you received from your faculty. The application consists of two parts:

The Contract serves as an acknowledgment of the ATP requirements. Review the above Program Requirements

A Plan for Success is a personal reflection addressing the academic challenges that you have faced in your last academic year, along with goals and specific strategies you plan to implement to accomplish your goals.

Your application will be reviewed by an Academic

Below are helpful tips, examples of what to aim for and what to avoid for your Plan for Success. Use this information to support you in completing the questions.

Reflect on this last academic year and share any challenges you feel impacted your academic performance.

Select up to four resources from the list below that you can use to address those challenge.

Helpfultip: There are many resources offered at the University of Calgary to support your learning and well-being.

The following table below outlines campus resources that are available to help support your academic turnaround. If there is a resource you would like to explore Otherand write it in.

Student Success Centre: ExploratoryAdvising	Advising for students who are considering changing their program and are undecided on which program is right for them.
Student Success Centre: AcademicSupport	Tailored meetings focusing on academic improvement and study skills development.
Student Success Centre: Writing Support	Improve writing and receive information on writing for different types of assignments.

For each resource identified, indicate how you plan to integrate them into your upcoming year. Keepin mind:

This non-credit course provides students with an opportunity to improve their academic success by developing in-context academic strategies, as
