With educational materials and interactive tools, the Financial Consumer Agency of Canada (FCAC) provides objective information about nancial products and services to help Canadians increase their nancial knowledge and con dence in managing their personal nances. FCAC informs consumers about their rights and responsibilities when dealing with banks and federally regulated trust, loan and insurance companies. FCAC also makes sure that federally regulated nancial institutions, payment card network operators and external complaints bodies comply with legislation and industry commitments intended to protect consumers.
