

(Institute of Maternal, Newborn and Child Health)
Canadian Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Scholarship (QES)
Young Leader 10091 Ton EMC /S1 0 01CP0 01CP66q.41 675.46 Tm.6Tm1p of Je

	Mbarara University of Science and Technology (MUST), Institute of Maternal, Newborn And Child Health (IMNCH), Mbarara, Uganda
	Office of the Manager
	3 months minimum (90 days)

	To help with digital story crafting (Video editing). Writing case studies about the usage and impact of specific Digital Stories. Participating in research writing about the DST Ugandan experience Participate in development of tools to guide in digital story production and use building on the Ugandan experience. Participate in gathering the required information needed for resource mobilisation. Work with the DST coordinator to update the video catalogue.
	Must be a senior-level student entering or enrolled in their 3rd or 4th year of undergraduate studies in Communication and Media Studies, film studies, development studies, anthropology, sociology, or other related programs or be enrolled in a graduate program in a related field at the time of application. Must be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident. 35 years of age or under at the time of application. The working language is English. Understanding of research processes (qualitative and/or quantitative), including developing project proposals. Understanding of knowledge dissemination process—graphic design or past presentation experience an asset. As part of the QES Program, the Intern must participate in community engagement activities on campus or in local communities abroad and in Canada. Academic credit requirement. This QES placement must be for academic credit. Interns must register in at least one course offered in the semester the internship is taking place (e.g., online course, independent study, self-directed study/research, co-op program placement, graduate research). Interns can work with the Office of Study Abroad and/or their academic mentor to explore options. Must be mature and independent. Must be flexible and willing to adapt according to the program's needs and cultural setting with empathy and consideration.
	Enhanced networking between Canadians and fellow citizens in Uganda Experiential learning focused on professional career development (e.g. global health) Enhanced skills and intercultural competencies through interaction with the diverse community of learners.
	A maximum of $6,000 to cover travel (airfare, insurance, immunizations) and living expenses will be provided to the selected Intern for the 90-day placement.
	Study Abroad Office, University of Calgary International https://www.ucalgary.ca/international/study-abroad/qes-east-africa